Why you Should Attend?

Managing ROI will help us maintain a strategic distance from purchases that might be affected by unjustifiable optimism. As business visionaries, we have a tendency to be exceptionally constructive, confident individuals. Proper management of ROI can help us settle on choices that are more grounded for our organizations, so we are not buying each “bright and sparkling” question that tags along and guarantees to improve our lives and organizations. Utilizing ROI can plainly make your business more gainful in a shorter measure of time. Have a go at adding ROI to your business tool compartment, and watch your organization grow.

Who Should Attend?

This course is to bridge the gap between marketers and financial officers, equipping all of them with the skills to better evaluate marketing programs and communicate in a common language. Therefore, the course useful for:

- ✓ Marketers
- ✓ Financial Managers
- ✓ Senior Executives
- ✓ Research Analysts
- ✓ Database marketing professionals
- ✓ Marketing directors
- ✓ Product or brand managers
- ✓ Data processing managers
- ✓ Database managers
